TASK 2: DIALOGUE

You have been offered a job in another city. You have not accepted the job yet because you are still thinking about the financial and professional advantages and positive aspects of this job move.

You want to talk it over with your best friend, because your final decision will be based on your own feelings and your friend's advice. Explain to him / her why you think that changing now would be good for you. YOU BEGIN THE DIALOGUE.

TASK 2: DIALOGUE

Your best friend has been offered a job in another city. When you think about all the disadvantages and negative aspects that changing jobs and moving to another city might have, you conclude it is not a good idea for your friend to accept this job.

Try and persuade him / her NOT to accept the job.
