CLIMATE AND WEATHER

The climate of the region of the world we live in determines our routines and even our character. If you were given the chance to move to an area with a totally different climate, which one would it be? Why?

You may talk about the following:

How the weather affects your feelings.

Possible natural disasters or extreme weather. Changes in your daily life.

New leisure activities or hobbies.

You have 4 minutes to prepare. You have to speak for 4 minutes. Your production will be recorded.
