TAREA 1: MONÓLOGO

Do men and women have the same opportunities nowadays? Do they still have different roles in the family? What real differences are there between their roles? Does positive discrimination promote equality or is it divisive?

TAREA 2: DIÁLOGO

You are a member of the jury responsible for deciding on the punishment for a young man who has covered benches, bins and lampposts in white paint.

You think this type of crime should be considered a serious issue, as it could set a precedent for other people or other types of petty crime. You think the most suitable option is some type of harsh punishment, including some time in prison.

A starts the conversation. You are third.
