TAREA 1: MONÓLOGO

Do you think we suffer from infoxication, or information overload, in today’s world? How useful do you consider having a Twitter, Facebook or Instagram account? How have social networks influenced the way we communicate with each other and the world around us?

TAREA 2: DIÁLOGO

You have bought a seaside holiday bungalow in Southern Spain and have just heard about a project to build a 10-floor residence block on the seafront opposite your house, contravening building restrictions. In addition, the project involves chopping down several tall trees in a high-value green space. Persuade a member of the town hall to stop the project.

You start the conversation.
