

TASK II: INTERACTION

12. CANDIDATE A

- In this part of the exam you are going to take part in a conversation with the other candidate. You have different information about an imaginary situation.
- In order to complete the task, you have to use the information given below and try to reach an agreement. Remember that this is a conversation. Avoid short answers and try to keep the conversation going.
- Try to use structures and vocabulary expected at this level
- The conversation will last about 5 minutes.

LAST DAY IN TOWN

You have been sharing a flat for six months with two other students while doing a language course in London. In a few days you are all leaving and you would like to do something special.

A party at the flat would be great. Try to convince your flatmates. These are some arguments you may want to use:

- people could bring their own food/drinks – other students invited
- do it on Friday – noisiest night of the week
- play favourite music – even karaoke!
- clubs too expensive – very little money left

TASK II: INTERACTION

12. CANDIDATE B

- In this part of the exam you are going to take part in a conversation with the other candidate. You have different information about an imaginary situation.
- In order to complete the task, you have to use the information given below and try to reach an agreement. Remember that this is a conversation. Avoid short answers and try to keep the conversation going.
- Try to use structures and vocabulary expected at this level
- The conversation will last about 5 minutes.

LAST DAY IN TOWN

You have been sharing a flat for six months with two other students while doing a language course in London. In a few days you are all leaving and you would like to do something special.

Eating out at a nice place with your flatmates would be great. Try to convince your flatmates. These are some arguments you may want to use:

- quiet night for a change – just you three
- chance to remember good moments
- perhaps a concert or play afterwards
- not in the flat - neighbours could complain

<http://pics.tech4learning.com>

TASK II: INTERACTION

12. CANDIDATE C

- In this part of the exam you are going to take part in a conversation with the other candidate. You have different information about an imaginary situation.
- In order to complete the task, you have to use the information given below and try to reach an agreement. Remember that this is a conversation. Avoid short answers and try to keep the conversation going.
- Try to use structures and vocabulary expected at this level
- The conversation will last about 5 minutes.

LAST DAY IN TOWN

You have been sharing a flat for six months with two other students while doing a language course in London. In a few days you are all leaving and you would like to do something special.

A big farewell party at the local pub would be great. Try to convince your flatmates. These are some arguments you may want to use:

- meet rest of students –pub you usually go to
- opportunity to say goodbye to everybody
- live music at the pub
- not in the flat – don't want to spend last day cleaning

