

TASK II: INTERACTION

7. CANDIDATE A

- In this part of the exam you are going to take part in a conversation with the other candidate. You have different information about an imaginary situation.
- In order to complete the task, you have to use the information given below and try to reach an agreement. Remember that this is a conversation. Avoid short answers and try to keep the conversation going.
- Try to use structures and vocabulary expected at this level
- The conversation will last about 5 minutes.

KEEPING THE FLAT CLEAN AND TIDY

You have been given a grant to study at a college in Oxford for six months. It's a great opportunity but you are going to be a bit pressed for money.

You have agreed to share a flat with another student and you would like to decide what household chores each of you is going to do.

These are some of the arguments you might want to use:

- save money to spend on other things
- flat not too big
- you're good at cooking
- eating out every day expensive
- you need a tidy place to concentrate on studies

TASK II: INTERACTION

7. CANDIDATE B

- In this part of the exam you are going to take part in a conversation with the other candidate. You have different information about an imaginary situation.
- In order to complete the task, you have to use the information given below and try to reach an agreement. Remember that this is a conversation. Avoid short answers and try to keep the conversation going.
- Try to use structures and vocabulary expected at this level
- The conversation will last about 5 minutes.

KEEPING THE FLAT CLEAN AND TIDY

You are going to study at a college in Oxford for six months because your parents want you to do an intensive English and Business Management course before you start working in the family business.

You have agreed to share a flat with another student because you thought the rules at the student hall were a little strict. You just want a place to stay at night. You know your flatmate will bring up the subject of sharing the housework, but you just want to pay someone to take care of the cleaning once a week or so.

These are some of the arguments you might want to use:

- cleaning lady once a week - not expensive

- reasonably priced meals at student hall

- taking care of your own bedroom OK

- you won't be using the kitchen

- not used to doing any housework
