A

TAREA 2: DIÁLOGO

STUDENT A:

The biggest trade unions in your country are calling for a 24-hour general strike against cuts and austerity measures. You consider it's high time citizens stood up for their rights and defended the welfare state. Talk to your colleague at work and discuss the issue. Express your opinion and react to your partner's point of view. You start the conversation.

STUDENT B:

The biggest trade unions in your country are calling for a 24-hour general strike against cuts and austerity measures. You consider this kind of actions may be a risky move and may do more harm than good. Keeping quiet might be the best way to avoid losing your job. Talk to your colleague at work and discuss the issue. Express your opinion and react to your partner's point of view. A starts the conversation.
