

2018-12-19 Wednesday Joanna Wójtowicz Marek Connell English notes 1

Is "Dresden" anything to call home about?
write (is it interesting)
 "In my opinion the Azores are nothing to call home about."
 "Is Tokyo anything to call home about?"

It cost 5 an arm and a leg. (un riñon/ ojo de la cara)

To chip in for +object. (To contribute)
 To club together
 Mo and my mam chipped in on a new kind of (encender).

If you say that someone goes to town on something, you mean that they deal with it with a lot of enthusiasm or intensity.
 We really went to town on it, turning it into a full, three-day show.
 The papers got hold of it and went to town on it.
 With £500 spending money for each couple, you can really go to town!

Illusions of grandeur (aires de grandeza)
 a delusion (common in paranoia) that you are much greater and more powerful and influential than you really are.

My superiors
 Hasty decisions (Pochopny)
 They didn't want to negotiate (negociar).
 You need to learn to teach him them the ropes.

Berserk [besérk] (crazy)
on the outskirts (las afueras) of the city.

Damaging, harmful (dañino)
eco-friendly = ecologically
Echo
 repeat (someone's words or opinions), typically to express agreement.
 "these criticisms are echoed in a number of other studies

sourset
 insulate izolować
rear (trasero)
 to rear (breed and raise (animals))

Millennial words
"You" You only live once. "fam" fear of missing out.
Soz (sorry)	famalam (family)
Def@ (definitely)	wasteman (idiot)
obvs (obviously)	probs (probably/problem)
t@tes (totally)	d@pe! (la ostia!)
Real Madrid is killing it (is on fire) (a tope)
to be on point. (perfect/excellent)	