To get round to verb+ing +object. (to have the time to do something)

To stop (verb) ban (verb) deter (verb) prevent (verb) prohibit (verb) forbid (verb) + (OBJECT PRONOUN) from verb+ing (something)

To avoid (OBJECT PRONOUN) verb+ing +object.

While similar, the verbs avoid and prevent are not the same idea. To avoid is to not go near something that is currently happening. To prevent is to stop something from existing or happening altogether.

- prevent = to stop something from happening or someone from doing something:
- avoid = to stay away from someone or something.

However, if you avoid doing something, this can be more or less synonymous with preventing it. Example:

Most workplace accidents can be avoided/prevented with proper safety training.

Think of this use of avoid as metaphorically "dodging" a situation. If you can avoid the conditions where something can happen (or avoid being in that situation at all) you have effectively prevented it from happening
